The tarot cards «The wisdom of the ancestors»

The cards in your hands are intended for the extraordinary, searching people, who cognize themselves and the world. Here you will find for yourself not only new ways of predictions, but also an advice, how to use this knowledge every day, in an ordinary real life.

The Tarot system appeared long time ago in the Ancient Egypt. And this knowledge was possessed by the initiated people – the priests. The priests were the upper social class, which was considered to be the wisest. Kings listened to them while making important politic decisions. Great people of the world appealed to them for predictions, divinations, valediction and even the healing. Once the great priests of Egypt gathered together for creating a huge mandala, in which they enounced all their knowledge. This mandala personified the world order, the human's structure and his/her path in the Universe. But the life is dynamic, a variety of processes occur in it. And they divided this mandala into separate elements, so that there would be a possibility to describe each process, each phenomenon of life in motion, of nascence, of development and of disappearance, of demolition and so on and so forth, and it is now possible to describe all the world's phenomena, the paths of all the things and the human ways, by means of adding them together diversely.

Thus, the Tarot cards appeared, which were the elements of that mandala and their layouts, which described all the phenomena of life and of death, of goodness and of evil, of creating and of destroying.

The Tarot system exists as a system of mysterious ciphered symbols, wherein the Supreme Knowledge is concealed. It wasn't the divinatory one initially, but it was a mystical one and it was helping people easily in dealing with their life situations. But at the moment the Ancient Egypt's priests understood, that many people appear on the Earth, who can garble the Supreme Knowledge and who will even try to destroy it. The priests enciphered the consecrated Knowledge in the form of symbols, in order to prevent it from destroying. All these symbols were represented on the golden slabs and they were stored in the Temple of Sun. But thereafter, with time, the sacral sense was lost. The devastating wars and earthquakes, the pillaging and the human's greed were merciless towards the creations of priests. And these slabs were irretrievably lost. But such a case was also envisaged by the Supreme Knowledge keepers. They created the pack of divination cards and gave it to the augurs, wiccans and diviners. Those ones, in turn, have spread this knowledge all around the world.

That was the way, which helped people to learn about the Tarot cards. But the mandala itself didn't reach the modern people; they also don't know the mysterious layouts, which had a magic power to change the life's events.

However the symbols, which are similar to Tarot, were present not only in Egypt. These were the runes in the ancient Europe and Hyperborea, hexagrams in China, which performed the same function. The shamans also had their own Tarot, which kept a profound secret, but it got revealed to the world now, thanks to the Great White Shaman.

Moreover, in contrast with the Egypt Tarot, the shamanic Tarot reveals mandala to us, which describes all the world order system, and it is the key to find solution for any contemporary problem. Indeed the human's problems haven't changed since then, and even vice versa, our contemporaries are in need of help even more – high rates of mortality, loneliness, credit slavery, poverty, a family's fragmentation and a lot more, not including the global humanity's problems. That's the reason why people are in need of this Knowledge so badly.

Feeding upon our ancestors' attainments, which have reached us from the ancient manuscripts, songs, legends, lore, legendary, nowadays we may learn the mysteries of the past and of the future, by performing ingenious layouts on the Tarot cards «The wisdom of the ancestors».

A long while ago, when no religions were known yet, the world of «Spirits» reigned on the Earth (such as the Spirit of Fire, the Spirit of Water, the Spirit of Air, the Spirit of Fruitfulness, of Health, of Youth, The Spirit of luck and so on). It was more than 40 000 years ago. People worshiped numerous deities during those times, which reigned their proper worlds. The smallest part of ancient attainments about the god Perun, Svarog, Velez and the others have reached us nowadays. But lots of them were considered to be irretrievably lost, since the secret attainments about the world's structure, about the reasons of anguishes and joys, of wealth and poverty, of freedom and enslavement were transferred only to the chosen ones. The seniors, the sages, the priests, the shamans were the custodians of wisdom and knowledge since the ancient times. They were the ones, who were addressed for getting a piece of advice and assistance by common people during the minutes of joy and troubles. And here came the time, when «The wisdom of the ancestors» becomes available for millions of people thanks to the Great White Shaman.

Many people, who use the wisdom of elders (ancestors), have already obtained the harmony and success, have changed the proper lives and the lives of their beloved ones, nearest and dearest people for better. What is needed is just to get open to the new knowledge and to apply it in practice. And the secret layouts will be taught by Great Shaman only to close disciples, since their power is great enough and it shouldn't get into unholy hands. Let these attainments be revealed to you! Khurai Mangalam!

So, let's get acquainted with the cards «The wisdom of the ancestors».

The entire pack is conventionally «divided» into four parts. They are the four worlds, which comprise our life: the World of Eternity, the World of Future, the World of Present and the World of Past. There's a proper god in each world, which endows a human with specific personal qualities and influences the life's well-being.

When you perform the layout of Tarot cards «The wisdom of the ancestors», you need to pay attention which cards (from which world) you «get» more. You'll be able to determine the life's stage you're at, and the events, that may await you in the nearest future. For example, if the cards, which refer to the World of Past occur to you more often during the layout, then it means, that you've submerged into remembrances, possibly into depressions, that you need to be particularly attentive and careful during this period. Since by plunging into the World of Past, you don't notice the events of the Present, it means, you put your future in danger, too. But if the cards, which personify the World of the Present «occur» to you, than it means, that your affairs are successful, harmonic, filled with picturesque events, and this period needs to be experienced to the fullest extent.

You may also use these cards (attainments) in routine affairs, every day, by performing a routine work or by preparing for festivities. For example, when you're going to invite guests to a party, you have a possibility to lay the table, taking not only the cardinal directions, but also all the four worlds into account. In order to do so, you need to straddle the flatware and the prepared dishes according to the attainments about this or that world's quality.

The World of Eternity (Tengri) will be placed in the East, and thus less food will be located here and a lot of free space will be here. The flatware can be modeled with napkins and accessories depicting the stars.

The World of Future (Ulgen') will be settled in the South, it means, that all the most unusual and the new things can be located here: all the things, that you will use for the first time. This part of the table can be served in transparent-white or transparent azure tinges, by using the images of clouds, of rainbow...

The World of the Present (Umai) will be located in the West with all the generous gifts: fruits, vegetables... You can serve this part, by using all the kinds of living nature, as well as of all of its generous gifts.

And the kingdom of the Past (Erlík) will be located in the North. And more heavy and replete food (for example, fish, meat and so on) can be put here. The World of the Past can be served, by using the darker tinges and heavy flatware.

When your preparations have been done and your guests have come, then you'll also be able to run diagnostics and to arrange predictions for your guests to the extent of guests' location at the table: the world, which your guest will choose (which «lures» him (her) intuitively) - will determine the way, in which his (her) affairs are arranged, the status he (she) has at the moment.

Furthermore, this knowledge may help alter the course of events of your life. You may ask: «How it could be?» It's easy! If you have a necessity of getting rid of illnesses or of whatsoever negative events, then choose a place for yourself in the World of the Past, in order to part yourself with everything that interferes with your living. If you want to create something new, then your place is in the World of the Future. You need to be located in the World of the Present, in order to enhance everything that you possess at the moment. And if you want to gripe the unknown and to disclose the extraordinary abilities, then surge forward towards the World of Eternity.

You may even apply the knowledge of cards «The wisdom of the ancestors» for the expansion of business or the arrangement of a new affair. That is, by arranging your office, salesroom, and restaurant and so on, you'll be able to allocate the worktables (workplaces), according to the card of universe, described in the Tarot cards.

It is important to locate the everyday items thoughtfully in your house, especially in the children's room, dining-room, and living-room. You may also introduce «The wisdom of the ancestors» not only into your house and office interior, but into a design of clothes and accessories, which will guide you everywhere during the day.

In such a way, by assimilating «The wisdom of the ancestors», you'll be able to get transfigured yourself and to help all the people, who are near you, step by step.

These cards are multi-functional, and you can perform any layout known to you with their help.

But we recommend you to perform the layout «of Emptiness» apart from that. Use all cards for this, laying them out one after one, until such a moment when the card «Emptiness» occurs to you – they will personify all the events, which happened in the past, everything, which led you to the present moment (or in the situation, which agitates you at the present moment). All the rest of the cards, which will follow the card «Emptiness», will show you the possible events of the future (the ways of solution of the set task).

You can also begin each day with the event-related forecast, by asking the cards a question and taking one or several cards from the pack (depending on the questions' number), receiving mini-predictions for the day, for the situation instantaneously...

The layout «Trinity» will help you resolve the situation, by drawing on three parts: the Mind (the generally accepted judgements, «a cold-blooded premeditation»), Emotions (subconscious, your internal «guesstimate»), Consciousness (the help of ancestors, gods).

In order to accomplish this, you need to narrow the question down, and then to get the first card, which will show you a generally accepted option of answer to the question (the one, which you would get from the friends, nearest and dearest...). The following card will show you the answer from the depth of Your subconscious (it is your internal voice, your intuition). The third card - is a help of the ancestors, the wisdom of gods. By uniting all three parts into one, you'll be able to take a wider look at the situation and to make a wise decision.

You see the shamanic universe's map on the backside of each card. There are numerous specifics on it, and each of them is of a great importance and each has a practical use. It is impossible to include all the knowledge about shamanic card into this description, thus visit our seminars, in order to comprehend the source, by virtue of which these cards are created. Here, in turn, we'll explain schematically: the marquee of eyes is a thousand-eyed sky (shamans think that the stars – are the eyes of the god Tengri).

Ulgen' – is Tengri's younger son. Umai – is Tengri's wife. Erlik – is Tengri's elder son. Behind him – there's a lock made of ferruginous iron. Tengri's bow is held by his sons from two sides. He sends his arrows to the Earth - Umai, fecundating it with the germs of new creatures and phenomena. Tengri's bow in human's hands – is his (her) consciousness, the arrows – are his (her) attention – which should be addressed towards Tengri, that is towards the eternity. The life's thread of all the creatures is held in Tengri's hands, 5 souls are beaded thereon, which are possessed by every human. Once the life's thread loses hold and falls, getting detached from the physical body, souls return to the gods, who have created them. Tengri leads the human through life by this thread, like a puppeteer, but a human doesn't understand in his (her) aberration, that he (she) – is the marionette of the gods and he (she) ascribes all the thoughts and deeds to him(her)self.

Ayi – is one of the millions of Tengri's eyes, which he detached from himself, and this eye became a separate creature. But at the same time it is Tengri, and it's separation from him – is an illusion. This Tengri's eye is a human him(her)self, all the rest – are only his (her) clothes.

Bos' is human's mind, which is free of bonds, prejudices, memory and which sees and creates everything in a new way.

Kut – is a personal power and also the power of lineage or of egregors, which a human belongs to. Also the level of luck and success, which accompanies him (her) through the life, and which he(her) may discredit, by leading an unreasonable life, which brings about the illnesses and troubles.

Tyos' – is a burden of memory, which grows with the flow of age and which buries a human under itself. As a result of that the old man lives with the past and he is closed to the life's novelty, he dies thereof. Exactly this soul holds him in Erlik's world.

Syur – is a human's double-ganger, the night dream body that is the body, wherein we act in imagination and in dreams.

The moon – is the star of the god Erlik.

The sun – is the star of Ulgen'.

The thunder, the thunderstorm are Ulgen's manifestation in the physical world. When an event transfers from the subtle world to the physical world – it is similar to a thunder, a lightning, a downpour: at first the events were created on a subtle world, and then the clouds congealed and started their manifestation in the earthy world.

Mirages occur when events and the things are formed on Ulgen's subtle world. They are similar to the gaseous, nebulous, slurred forms – these are the thoughts and dreams of the people. But the more they get filled with the energy of wish, the more distinct and the more ponderable they become, and, finally they can get materialized in a physical world.

4. Past of Erlik

A bodeful man is depicted on the card, who sits on the black bull with a head and the hooves, reminding a «deuce». A man, sitting on this bull, also looks fierce: long black messy hair, puckered eyebrows, fangs, sticking out of the mouth – all of it expresses a capacity for ingenious actions. He clutches the snake of temptations tightly in one hand, and in the other hand – he clutches rosary, thanks to which he counts all the mistakes, attachments, earthly riches. This is the god of the past, of memory, of the underground kingdom Erlik-khan.

It is exactly Erlik-khan who takes the surpluses of material benefits away from the people, who live on the Earth, to free the earthly space up for new creations, new projects. He also accepts the souls of all those people, who have taken the leave from the Earth and he impedes them in his kingdom, until the time, when the memory about them on the Earth has elapsed.

The card's meaning is wreckage, a demolition.

You've been reached by the time of challenges and disappointments. Now you've moved over to the «zone of darkness» and incomprehension. The entire world seems gloomy, dingy, and lifeless. The thoughts about the past sink you into a state of depression. Your career may end-up on the brink of collapse. However, these are only temporary difficulties. You strain after the changes. It's time to mobilize your strengths for new achievements, for transition to a new, higher stage in life. This card warns you about the possible partner's change. In order to pass all the challenges painlessly, the card advises you to undergo a session for cleansing Nabhu Chakra, after which you will attain liberation of all the anguishes and you will be able to help other people.

An esoteric meaning of the card – liberation.

You are a lucky stiff! The card notifies you of the completion of one of the stages in your life. It is right now that you effectuate the ultimate efforts, you undergo the challenges, you get exempted from all the undue, unnecessary things, which restrained you on your path. Muster all your strengths. Address your conductors for a piece of advice and get their help on the seminar. Big changes and awareness are waiting for you.

Inverted card: you're in trouble, the evil spirits have prepared numerous traps for you. A protective talisman will help you.

5. Bow of Tengri

The bow and the arrow – are the symbol of achieving a goal. Every person is able to achieve a goal when his (her) intention's bow-string is stretched, it is stiff, inflexible. And it is important to possess a perspicuous gaze, in order not to miss the target, having chosen it, not to get lost in time and space. It is namely «The Wisdom's Eye», that allows a human to look into the roots of the problems, to have a concise vision of all the things happening inside of it and outside of it.

The card's meaning – is career advancement.

Everything you've strained after willingly, starts coming true instantaneously. Even minor goals get materialized with a lighting speed. But each ascent holds the danger of falling down. However, even more efforts need to be made, so that you wouldn't miss your chance, so that you wouldn't turn back the tide, but so that you would accomplish the task set. 10. The soul Tyos'

An immense fish swims through old, sunken objects, through the seaweed with its eyes half-closed. Its scale, just like everything around it, is slightly crusted with sea ooze, «the time's sand». It is the soul of Tyos' – the soul of the World of Memory, which is given to a human by the Inferior World's overlord Erlik-khan. The one, who has «hardened» in the dark seaweed of memory of the past, may remain there forever, and the soul will be buried in the waste deposit of the old events, which have departed from life.

The card's meaning – is a deception.

It seems to you, that the events run their course. However, the card testifies to the opposite. You want to return to the past, to feel that which is inaccessible to you already. The state of depression is customary for you, you're dissatisfied with everything, and sometimes you're irritated. A change in sentiment, instability in emotions may lead to irremediable consequences, illnesses. You're waylaid by deception and self-deception.

The card advises you to feel like «a duck to water», which travels through life's river, moving easily from one water body to the other. Life should be accepted in all of its forms, without evaluating and without getting identified with anything.

Esoteric meaning of the card – is stagnation.

Alas, you may observe stagnation in your life now. Your life is like you are sleeping in deep sleep. A heavy burden of memories doesn't allow you to perform positive steps forward.

You conceive that you've achieved great triumphs. You feel an overflow, a surfeit of information; you aspire to cloister, to go away from reality. Be careful! The card warns you about a possible falling into the abyss of events, which don't exist already, and it means – a strong lag from real life.

An individual practice for purification of negative emotions will help you. Don't miss the chance to fulfill yourself with the Power and new knowledge on the seminars and workshops provided by conductors.

Inverted card: the card warns you about the insincerity and betrayal from your friends, the time has come to tell yourself honestly: who is with you for the proper vantage, and who is a true friend, who helps in trouble and who is an example for you. It's time to sacrifice the relations, which weaken you, so that a place would be free for harmony and love. The session of Nabhu Chakra purification will help you.

11. The Soul Syur

A light, transparent and jolly manikin hovers through the space, filled with light. He is burdened by life's difficulties; he has no attachments, no diseases, or sufferings. He isn't tormented by «serious», «important» thoughts and by explosions of emotions. This is the soul Syur, which is received by a human from one of the gods (Tengri, Ulgen', Umai or Erlik). It is namely the soul Syur, which determines human's key role and destination.

The card's meaning – is lightheartedness.

You treat life with ease; you aspire to simply follow the general flow, depriving yourself of the choice's freedom frequently. You feel that nothing depends on you, that someone leads you through life. Sometimes these are your parents or business partners. But you feel a necessity of cognizing the utmost within yourself, to learn to administer your life on a free-standing basis.

The card advises you to plunge into reverie about notions, which are truly necessary to you and to follow the heart's voice. The self-sufficient complex will help you in it.

Try to employ the practices on body's development Syur more often.

Inverted card: you're influenced greatly by the nearest and the dearest human – a parent, a relative or a friend. This superfluous custodianship forms a dependent image of yourself, it weakens you. You need to take a firm hold of responsibility for the proper life entirely, become more self-sustained. It is recommended to undergo the training session for Initiation to one of the Great Women (learn more from the conductor on the seminar)

19. Inverted cart

A tired horse moves slowly over the loose soil. The horse is harnessed with the cart backwards with square wheels. A semi-darkness and a mist prevail around. This is Erlik-khan's kingdom. Here the time flows backwards, and all the life's events get scrolled contrariwise. This is the World of Dreams, the World of Memory, the World of Past, wherein a human immerses during life and wherein he (she) pushes his (her) way along after death.

The square wheels are a symbol of a non-harmonic energy's flow and of angularity, narrow-mindedness, dogmatism of the world's perception, which hamper the onward movement.

The human's life consists of absurdities, as well as the card with the square wheels does. But he (she) has got so much used to it, that it doesn't even occur to him, that one can live in the other way, that he (she) should be relieved of unnecessary difficulties and anguishes, one just needs to stop holding on to proper being's ugly status and to humble him(her)self to the proper life's horror.

The card's meaning – is a dream, sleeping.

Your life flows steadily and calmly. Nothing causes you discomfort and anguish. At first sight it seems that life draws upon smoothly and harmonically. But try to see the state of stagnation and dreaming, otherwise you may be gripped by bad luck and disappointment. You may establish an unnecessary contact, which will cause great losses. Your business may be under the threat of devastation. Firm measures and activism are needed, in order to prevent the slowdown in the processes of your well-being's development and not to turn the «life's cart» backwards. Try to be with nature and visit Places of Power more often.

The card advises you to pass through the ritual of Nabhu Chakra cleansing to get rid of the vicious habits, alcoholism, a drug dependency and tobacco smoking.

Esoteric meaning of the card – is a warning.

Wake up! The card cries to you about the fact that a chartered course may be tidied over with the uttermost success, if you'll be able to see that emotions, wishes and imagination control you. You are on the edge of an abyss and it is necessary to waken the «charioteer» urgently - the consciousness. Otherwise your «cart», as well as the development, may stop or slither to the mud, the abyss. Aspire to direct your attention from the past into the future, not to repose «on the laurels of your achievements».

Inverted card: increase the energy level urgently! If everything remains the same, then you are impeded by animosity on the part of the nearest and dearest man, scandals in the family, a pain and a grievance, an adultery or a divorce. The card advises you to write a letter to the Great White shaman, to describe a problem and to ask for a piece of advice and for help. Urge to take part in the seminar, where all your problems will be solved and new opportunities for realization of your dreams will come out.

20. Mor and Mara

Two abominable people set on their way from the valley of death upstream: an old-man Mor and an old-woman Mara. They are coming to the present's world Umai in order to cause numerous troubles and misfortunes to the people, living on the Earth. They are the ones, who dispatch illnesses, devastations, death upon the people. They, whereas, take those, whose time has come to leave the world of the alive and to transfer to the kingdom of shadows to the Erlik's world. Our existence is filled with evil spirits, lyarvas, demons, which constantly cause harm to the person. But the person holds them himself, he is tied firmly to his weak thoughts, negative emotions, vicious habits, that is why these demons have such power over people.

The card's meaning – the losses.

Your life changes its direction, and along with it various events may come into your life, which may bring losses and the misses (a divorce's threat). Also a disease's threat emerges, along with the decline of a general vital tonus. All this is a result of an incorrect energy's distribution.

But the card also tells you about the possibility to avoid these events. It is only necessary to comprehend that each object and each person demands individual attention and a power for himself. And it is necessary to reinforce the personal power – the power of Kut. Therefore, it is recommended to pass through the sessions of Indo-Tibetan healing.

Esoteric meaning of the card – is a sacrifice.

There is a stage in your life, when it is necessary to remember the law of Sacrifice. Everything that was accumulated through the years of life: material benefits, the wisdom and the attainments, get burdensome onto your shoulders, unless they're applied according to their designation and they create stagnation.

Mor and Mara are always side by side and they track the ones, who don't wish to part with the surpluses of accumulated possessions voluntarily.

The card notifies of the close proximity of Erlik's acolytes. Be vigilant and judicious! Observe your life path and get rid of everything that stops your development.

Inverted card: it is quite unfavorable to take on a loan, to conceive a child, to marry during this period - the card says that it may result in a disappointment and a great tragedy.

Exacerbations of chronic diseases, a friend's treachery are possible. The card advises to attend the seminars provided by conductors, because all difficult life situations could be solved there.

21. The sacrifice

The sacrifices were made to the gods, in order to ingratiate their benefaction and to receive support from them. A bull – was sacrificed to Erlik (the past’s god), and a white horse, which was set free – was sacrificed in a similar way to Ulgen (the god of the future). If an animal was killed, then usually the sacrifice's meat was eaten by the entire tribe in such a way, that, firstly, a great number of people would ask the gods for the favor towards one person. Secondly, the sacrifice was spread among all the people.

The card’s meaning – you can’t get what you want. Please think, do you really need it? If so, then consider what in your life prevents you from getting it. And if it is worth – sacrifice it.

The card recommends you to pass the practice «The sacrifice» provided by the conductor at the seminar.

Esoteric meaning of the card – a person can't receive without sacrifice something new, the thing he wants. What is the sacrifice? In our time – it is a help to the people and first of all for the purpose, that they may receive the knowledge and the chieftainship, for example, of the shaman. And also the sacrifice of the things, which hinders our living - these are the prejudices of gregariousness, negative emotions and the pegs to the bad things, which pull us to the bottom.

Inverted card: come out of the role of a victim. Tell yourself: «The obstacles are blessed, as we grow thanks to them!» Pass through the Nabhu Chakra cleansing session, and you will get rid of the fear which stops you from moving forward.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

Music of Transformation, “For protecting from diseases” Charge your drinking water with this music, and drink it every morning, and it will heal and charge you with energy.

The Shamanic icon “Ancestral family tree.”

This is the main shamanic image that symbolizes all your lineage: your ancestors are the roots, you and your contemporaries are the trunks of a tree, and the crown of a tree - the descendants. If the family tree is alive, then all your lineage thrives happily. OBTAIN THE WHOLE PACKAGE OF PRACTICES

In fact, this is a card that all people need, who are obsessed with a phantom goal and want to achieve it at any cost, but still, nothing works for them. The card gives them a sign to think: is it worth it? It is most likely that Your wish will not come true because the Higher Powers have prepared something else for You. You need to sacrifice your old desire in order to get something new and to reach a new standard of living. Therefore, it is recommended that you:

Dear, you should go through the ritual "Strengthening the matrix of health, lineage." The spirits said: “This is a ritual that you have to go through within the next 3 days”; it can be found online. TAKE THE RITUAL

22. Erlik's daughters

A shaman flies, carrying the sacrifice to Erlik-khan, in order to buy the stolen soul out from him, but he meets beautiful naked virgins on the way, with black hair of the length up to the knees, but they have no knee-caps, eyes, and their tongues are like the tongues of the snakes. They lure the shaman to themselves, in order to take his sacrifice for themselves to leave him in the World of the Dead forever. If he is lured by their charms, then he will die.

The card's meaning – you need to be selective enough in your love-affairs. If you idealize an unworthy person – he (she) will devastate you entirely and will lead to suffering and life's destruction.

Exercise the secrets of creating harmonic relationships in the seminars and workshops provided by the conductors.

Esoteric meaning of the card – is a sexual energy's symbol, which lures a person, so that he would sacrifice him(her)self to nature. And if he (she) yields to its calling, then he (she) will devastate him(her)and he (she) won't succeed in achieving the proper goal. He (she) should be capable of handling this power, knowing the way to practice Maidkhuna, then he (she) will be able to achieve the command of him(her)self and of the circumstances, otherwise he (she) will be its slave. The card admonishes to pass the ritual of merging with the power of the Great White Shaman.

Inverted card: You got lost among the dangerous liquid bogs of the Memories' World. The former love affairs prevent you from finding your true love.

You lose yourself more and more, by means of traveling down the memory line.

23. The city of shadows

The city of Shadows stands under the cover of gloom in the phantasmal expanses, which consists of the wooden, crumbly cribbed huts without windows and doors, overtopping the poles, which sink in the flimsy ground. The city is surrounded with the old dried-up trees without leaves and bark. The depraved household items wallow inside of the houses: plates with a holey bottom, broken spoons, tables and chairs on two legs... The shadows of people «flow from one place to another» around the houses slowly, as if they were in oblivion. The people, who have left the world Umai, settle down, namely in such ghost-cities.

And the bygone human is to bide in the city of shadows until the time, when the memory of people about him (her) has elapsed, before he (she) would be able to continue the proper journey through the Milky way to Tengri's World.

The card's meaning – is nescience. Smile! The card notifies you of the forthcoming event – the pathway's final. You ended up by the roadside, when an elaborated plan of actions had led you to the dead-end. It is in vain, that you aspire to array the proper future, by being geared to the events from the past - in that way you'll constantly return onto the same «circle of the formerly experienced events». But you shouldn't lose heart! You have acquired the experience and the attainments! Now you need optimism, common sense and the forces for the construction of new vital plans and objectives more than ever. It is the most favorable period for the starting of new acquaintanceship and for initiating contacts. The card tells you about the readiness for the unusual events.

Esoteric meaning of the card – is awareness, knowing. The card reminds you that it is necessary to realize each moment of life, each occurring event. You are inclined to idealize everything around you, to not see the variety. Don't constipate the space around you, when you erect «the temple of the soul». Aspire to get rid of fuss and unbelief. Don't erect the ghost-houses in your mind. Don't be afraid of throwing all the fusty, moribund things «onto the scrap-heap». Open all the «windows and doors» and let the new flow of wisdom, attainments from your Power's conductor in. The card advises you to pass the Nabhu Chakra cleansing session.

Inverted card: You need to change your environment, which amounts you to the bottom of miscarriages. Surround yourself with the spiritual, purposeful, interesting people, who lead active and healthy lives. Try to attend seminars provided by the conductors of Power, invite new people to come with you. Remember: when you help people, God helps you.

24. Arankas

Four powerful trees with huge roots stand by the four cardinal points. Each tree personifies the proper world – the past, the present, the future and the eternity. A stove-couch made of branches is fixed between the trees, wherein the body of the shaman slumbers, who has left the world of Umai (the Present World). A Big shaman is ready to render assistance to anyone, who needs it, even upon departure from the Present World; he is open to all the people, to all the souls, to all the gods.

The card's meaning – is an aspiration, a chance.

Your entire environment and the entire lifestyle pattern testify to your ingenuity. You prefer irregular doing and an aspiration towards leadership. Make use of all the pieces of advice, which will be given to you in the near future. Selectiveness and outspokenness will help you ascend above the habitual patterns of conduct and of the situation's vision. You get the chance to acquire a new life and a new experience.

The card advises you to visit the Places of Power several times a year.

Esoteric meaning of the card – is a rebirth.

All your former life was a preparatory phase for a new, more complete life - the Supreme Spirit's life. This card testifies to your higher predestination and major prospects. The very moment approaches, when you'll receive a possibility to be reborn again, by ascending above the habitual reactions, above the old thinking and the moribund methods. The people may come to you for help. Don't be afraid to "get off the Earth" and to manifest unconventionally for the desired result's achievement.

The practice of entering «The Circle of Power» will help you to hold your orienting point down.

Inverted card: don't canker the proper talents in favor of the circumstances and people, remember the things you want.

The card says: «Now or never!» Get to know your individuality by means of the Diagnostic of predestination and listen out only for it!

25. The bridge

The bridge made of horse-hair is extended between two moldering stumps in a distant land of the kingdom of shadows (the past) on the bank of the black lake of Sadness and anguishes. This bridge unites the World of the Dead and the World of the Alive. A soul of the defunct human should pass through it over the river of tears Toldyn, in order to get to the Ancestors' World after the death. It can be difficult at times for the soul, which is burdened with attachments and sins. The shamans often help a soul to cross this bridge. While a person is alive, a bridge is not that important to him (her), since it unites two banks: «The Bank of Anguishes» and «The Bank of Luck». And the person also needs to be very light, weightless, in order to pass across this bridge from the country of Anguishes into the country of Success. But it's not that simple, since a sensation of uncertainty and of fear makes the person too heavy.

There's a handle in the form of a human on the drum's inner side. This is the drum's owner, a shaman-ancestor, which helps the earthy shaman, lends him knowledge, indicates the path to the gods, fights the evil spirits alongside him. A string, which is strained crosswise between the drum's edges – is a bow-string, the arrows are hung upon it, with which a shaman strikes the evil during a shamanic ritual. A very interesting card. The soul needs peace. Solitude and visiting a place of power is the best thing you can do for yourself in the near future. Inner harmony can be easily restored. Grey everyday life, routine, and ordinariness begin to absorb your personality, depriving you of the simple joys of life: friends, hobbies, activities, recreation... The card says you should avoid household chores and devote time to your true interests. Therefore, it is recommended that you:

Dear, you should Go through the ritual of “Cleansing and opening up the heart”. The spirits said: “This is a ritual that you have to go through within the next 3 days”; it can be found online. TAKE THE RITUAL

33. Emptiness

A Great primeval Emptiness is depicted on the card. There are neither forms, nor outlines. This card tells you about the fact that you stand on the cusp of important events. Everything emerges from the emptiness, and everything gets dissolved in the Emptiness.

The card's meaning – leave the disarrays in the past and start your life with a clean sheet! Live exactly your own program of life, not the life imposed to you by your parents, friends or society. Being unable to realize yourself, enduring an unloved man by your side, suffering from physical or moral violence or derailing everything at once and starting a new life from the beginning – it is a choice you can make right now! A ritual of Initiation into one of Great Women will help you in this.

Esoteric meaning of the card – you've passed through certain difficulties of a spiritual path already, you already know the secrets of overcoming laziness, pride, fear for obscurity. All these enemies retreat before such a person, who is constantly tuned to the Great White shaman. The shaman always responds to the person's prayer. The gloom gets dissolved once the light appears. May those, who will touch this verity's bonfire, be blessed. The Great White Shaman is ready to welcome you, continue visiting seminars, and this will transform you into a radiant being, filled with energy and harmony.

Inverted card: has the same meaning.

Marie,
41 years old

I came to a shamanistic seminar completely by accident. I just felt like I've been doing something I wasn't supposed to do all my life. I was 36 years old, and I felt totally broken up, I was too tired at work, and I used to go home exhausted, like an old woman. I stopped taking care of myself. In a word, I was not living, I was just existing. But thanks to the practices of the seminar I was able to change everything. It turned out that even 5 years ago I had lost contact with my family - it could no longer support me, because I really did not do what I was meant to do. My tutor not only helped me to understand my mission on earth, but also reconnected me with my family. I am very happy! Thank you!

Individual practices

A chance given by higher powers to change your life for the better.

The Guides are people with developed superpowers and can read information from the subtle plane, from the light spirits. And if you personally receive a recommendation for an individual session from a Guide of Power, it is a great fortune for you.

During the individual practice: sacral personal work with your aura, your prescribed code and destiny takes place.

The Guide sees the negative energy clots in the person's aura - it is negative karma of the family, spoilage, evil eye, curse or something else. And a Guide of Power performs a special individual ritual - to remove this obstacle on your way to a happy and harmonious life!

Irma,

I had given up hope of getting pregnant - my husband and I had been trying for six years, but it was all in vain. I had almost come to terms with it. My relationship with my husband started to deteriorate and I even suspected he was dating another woman. During a diagnosis with my tutor, I found out that my uterus had "fallen asleep" since I was a teenager, when I was severely hurt by my stepfather and I left home. I could never forgive him, and that anger was building up in my uterus. After the energy cleansing ritual, I began to feel better. My husband stopped disappearing in the evenings "at work". And a couple of months after that, I got pregnant!!! That's a huge blessing. My husband and I are immensely grateful and happy.

Magical objects

Clara,
34 years old

In my family it was conventional to live modestly and make do with what we had. But I had always wanted to give my children more: to be able to go to prestigious schools and universities, travel and help others. I found out that my distant ancestors were very rich but cruel people. Their actions affected the whole family, karma was tainted and we became poor. At the seminar, my tutor helped me pick up a magical amulet with a strong spirit that is friends with the Money Spirit. I do not remove this amulet, it helped me to work through money channels, regain generic support and open up the money flow. I am doing charity work, giving back and the money is only getting more! Thank you, you are my angels!
